What you need to know about Lisa Miller.

Lisa served as a classroom teacher for three years. After her son was born with developmental delays she began working to improve the lives of all children with disabilities. She has spent the last decade building advocacy networks at the local and state level, and she understands the need for systemic change. Lisa has chaired the Polk County ESE Advisory Board since 2010, and represented Polk county as a member of Florida's State Advisory Committee on Exceptional Student Education with the Florida Department of Education since 2014. Gov. Rick Scott appointed her to chair the Family Care Council for Area 14 in 2012
